AU Corporate Advisory and Legal Services (AUCL) is a leading, Mumbai-based provider of corporate strategies, financial advisory, debt syndication and litigation services. Under the leadership of Akshat Khetan, a highly-respected corporate legal advisor, the firm has gained recognition for its customer-centric approach and commitment to value creation.

AUCL assists its clients in navigating complex challenges by providing practical and innovative solutions, making it a trusted partner for corporations seeking comprehensive support.

Khetan's distinguished career is marked by numerous achievements and accolades, which highlight his expertise in managing intricate financial and legal matters. With extensive experience in corporate debt insolvency, he is widely regarded as one of India's most prominent legal advisors.

His holistic approach employs a 360-degree thought process, allowing him to gain profound insights into diverse challenges. He firmly believes that every challenge can be approached from multiple perspectives and requires tailored strategies. By adhering to his operational tenet of value creation, Khetan has facilitated successful turnarounds for numerous clients.

Unique offerings

AUCL stands out in the industry through its unique service offerings, including regulatory compliance, policy development and implementation, corporate governance, intellectual property rights registration, protection and enforcement, as well as matters related to share capital and other distributions.

AUCL's customer-centric approach has garnered the firm positive feedback from its clients across various sectors.

Throughout his journey, Khetan has encountered and overcome numerous challenges, guided by his steadfast belief in persisting until goals are achieved. His favourite saying is: "Jab tak jeevan hai tab tak sangharsh hai." (As long as there is life, there is struggle), something that reflects his unwavering determination towards personal and professional growth.

Khetan has long advocated for change in the industry, emphasising the need for a clear pathway to resolve cases and promote an entrepreneurial mindset among young professionals. He also recommends establishing a framework to manage digital competition and bringing fuel and energy costs under the ambit of goods and services tax (GST) while abolishing state-level taxes.

At the core of Khetan's leadership style is a focus on responsibility and sustainability. As he often says, "The road to success must be paved by a certain sense of responsibility and sustainability." It is imperative to encourage value creation across all levels and exemplify this commitment to creating value for all stakeholders.
