

PRESS CONFERENCE!

WHT NOW, a youth initiative, launched a statewide campaign against cyber harassment and bullying in Rajasthan on Monday. The announcement was made during a press conference attended by Shantanu Kumar Singh, IPS, Cyber Crime, PHQ Rajasthan, along with key stakeholders and government officials. Founder Neeti Goel emphasized creating a safe online space, while co-founder Akshat Khetan highlighted the need for stronger legal frameworks. Brand Ambassador Taha Shah Badussha encouraged spreading awareness to inspire digital empathy. The initiative offers legal aid, youth mentorship, and outreach programs in colleges across Rajasthan. Victims can seek support through the dedicated helpline: +91 9019115115.
