

Cyber Conclave Organised by Wht Now Draws Over 700 Students at Y.B. Chavan Auditorium

Mumbai: A high-impact Cyber Conclave was successfully organised today by Wht Now, led by its Founder Neeti Goel and Co-Founder Akshat Khetan, at the prestigious Y.B. Chavan Auditorium. The conclave brought together senior policymakers, law enforcement leaders, legal experts, and youth representatives to deliberate on cyber awareness, digital safety, and emerging cyber threats.

The conclave witnessed participation from 22 colleges and an enthusiastic turnout of over 700 students, underlining the growing importance of cyber education and responsible digital citizenship among India's youth. The event was graced by Shri Rahul Narvekar, Hon'ble Speaker of the Maharashtra Legislative Assembly, who emphasized the need for cyber literacy to safeguard democratic institutions and empower citizens in the digital age.

Also present was Shri Gaurav Gautam,

Hon'ble Minister for Youth & Employment, Government of Haryana. In his address, he highlighted how cybersecurity skills are fast becoming essential for youth employment, entrepreneurship, and national growth.

Following the minister's address, Shri Yashasvi Yadav, ADGP, Maharashtra, delivered a compelling and highly impactful talk that emerged as a key highlight of the conclave. He offered critical insights into the evolving nature of cybercrime, digital frauds, and online threats, stressing the importance of awareness, vigilance, and cooperation between citizens and law enforcement agencies.

Renowned political leader and legal expert Shaina NC addressed the gathering on the intersection of law, technology, and cybercrime, emphasizing the need for stronger legal literacy and responsible digital behavior among students across the country.
